

HORSE RUNS AWAY, HITS POLE AND MRS. ENDSLEY IS KILLED.

Animal Became Frightened at Drunken Woman Who Was Sprawled in Gutter at Uniontown.

GIRL MAKES LEAP TO SAFETY

Daughter of the Victim Escaped Without Injury—Mrs. Endsley's Neck Was Broken and She Died Almost Instantly.

UNIONTOWN, April 17.—Recovering frightened by a drunken woman who sprawled in the gutter at the intersection of the Morgantown road and Lebanon avenue, the horse driven by Mrs. Jane Endsley, aged 50, became frightened this morning and ran off. Miss Lois Endsley, who was in the buggy, leaped to the ground and escaped injury, but her mother was hurled from the vehicle when it collided with a telephone pole and sustained a broken neck, dying almost instantly.

Mrs. Endsley and her daughter started for town this morning from their home along the Morgantown road. All went well until the horse spied the drunken woman, who had laid in the gutter all night at the corner of Lebanon avenue. The animal snorted, made a plunge forward and, taking the bit in his teeth, became unmanageable. Miss Lois Endsley jumped from the buggy before the horse gained much headway. Her mother remained in the vehicle and attempted to halt the plunging steed.

The horse ran to one side of the road and ran into a telephone pole. Mrs. Endsley was thrown out; her neck being broken. She was taken to the home of J. B. Seese, nearby, breathed a couple of times, but expired before Drs. J. S. Hemenway or C. H. Smith could arrive. She was the wife of John Endsley and leaves seven children.

INSPECTORS MUST TAKE EXAMINATIONS

New Departure To Be Introduced in the West Virginia Mining Field.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., April 17.—A new departure is to be introduced into the department of mines by Chief John Loring, and hereafter the deputy inspectors will have to prove that they are capable of performing their duties before their miners are apprised to the pay regulator. There are at present, or will be the first of the coming month, four vacancies in the force of district inspectors, and their successors will have to submit to a consecutive examination.

The first examination will be held about May 1, due announcement of which will be made. By this method Chief Loring expects to satisfy himself of the qualifications of the candidates before he makes his appointments. Not that the present deputies are not capable men. Most of them compare favorably with the inspectors of other States, but in times past politics has played some part at least in the selection of these men, who have a most important work to perform, and this is to be avoided under the new rules. Chief Loring will not talk on the subject except to state that such an examination is to be held.

ICE TONGS SLIPPED

Ind James Horne of Scottsdale Was Painfully Injured.

SCOTTDALE, April 17.—James C. Horne, the well known driver of the ice wagon, sustained serious injuries in a peculiar accident while he was delivering a big cake of ice to D. W. Bittner's meat store yesterday afternoon. Mr. Horne had the tongs fast in a cake of ice and was just exerting himself to lift the cake up over the doorway when the tongs slipped out of the ice and he went backward over a cake of ice standing behind him. He struck on his hip and thigh, and as he was hitting against 300 pounds this added to his weight gave him a fearful impetus. He was taken to his home and James Keegan, Jr., is on the wagon today.

Damaged a Manhole.

Street Commissioner Joseph Hattill is much incensed over the discovery of vandalism on Aetna street. Hattill discovered this morning that someone has taken up a man hole to one of the sewers and appropriated nearly half the bricks used in the enclosure. Prosecutions will follow if the miscreant is located.

Pay Day at Mills.

This is pay day at the Scottsdale mills and the old time Saturday morning crowds were on the streets and in the banks today.

BEATRICE THAW
ANOTHER THAW HEIRESS WHO IS TO WED A TITLE.

Miss Beatrice Thaw, daughter of Alexander Blair Thaw, second son of the late William Thaw of Pittsburgh, is engaged to Marquis Francesco Theodore, a member of an old Roman family. Miss Thaw's father is a half brother of Harry Thaw, the slayer of Stanford White, and of the Countess of Yarmouth, who divorced her titled husband. She will inherit a fortune of many millions. The date of the wedding has not been announced.

JEFFERSON TAKEN TO STEUBENVILLE TODAY

Bad Negro Will Be Tried for Shooting Deputy Sheriff There—Was Unruly in Fayette County Jail.

UNIONTOWN, April 17.—Sheriff John S. Burns of Steubenville, O., left this morning with Albert Jefferson, a negro, who is wanted in the Ohio city for shooting Deputy Sheriff D. S. McMaster more than a year ago. McMaster was in a critical condition for some time after the shooting occurred but ultimately recovered.

The first examination will be held about May 1, due announcement of which will be made. By this method Chief Loring expects to satisfy himself of the qualifications of the candidates before he makes his appointments. Not that the present deputies are not capable men. Most of them compare favorably with the inspectors of other States, but in times past politics has played some part at least in the selection of these men, who have a most important work to perform, and this is to be avoided under the new rules. Chief Loring will not talk on the subject except to state that such an examination is to be held.

ICE TONGS SLIPPED

Ind James Horne of Scottsdale Was Painfully Injured.

SCOTTDALE, April 17.—James C. Horne, the well known driver of the ice wagon, sustained serious injuries in a peculiar accident while he was delivering a big cake of ice to D. W. Bittner's meat store yesterday afternoon. Mr. Horne had the tongs fast in a cake of ice and was just exerting himself to lift the cake up over the doorway when the tongs slipped out of the ice and he went backward over a cake of ice standing behind him. He struck on his hip and thigh, and as he was hitting against 300 pounds this added to his weight gave him a fearful impetus. He was taken to his home and James Keegan, Jr., is on the wagon today.

RICE ENGAGES IN BUSINESS IN ARIZONA

Former Manager of Casino Enterprises Here Has Opened an Amusement Park in Douglas.

Friends of W. E. Rice have received copies of a bill from Douglas, Ariz., advertising a grand cow roping and bronco busting exhibition which will be given there at Cowboys' Park early May. The park has just been opened and will be operated for a period of five years. Mr. Rice is Secretary and Treasurer of the company.

The enclosure covers an area of 25,000 square feet and is located just over the line in Mexico. R. S. Coll, formerly of The Courier, is now located in Douglas.

Quinn With New York.

John Quinn, the Dunbar boy, who is pitching for the New York Americans, made a fine impression against Washington this week. He held the Nationals down to five hits and won his game.

The Weather.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday, cooler tonight in the noon weather bulletin.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., SATURDAY EVE G., APRIL 17, 1909.

EIGHT PAGES.

THEATRICAL WAR WILL BREAK SOON.

Shuberts Break Away From Syndicate and Conditions Are Uncertain.

MAY AFFECT CONNELLSVILLE

Big Independent Producers Also Sever Their Connection With the Managers' Association—Own String of Their Own Houses.

United Press Telegram.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 17.—Tho British Consul at Adana and Major Doughty Wyke, British Consul at Mersin, have been wounded in the rioting that has raged in this section for the last 48 hours, according to a report that has just reached here.

The latest reports say 2,500 people have been slain in Adana and Mersin and that the massacre of Christians is spreading to other towns. It will likely sweep over all of Asia Minor.

A large part of Adana has been burned and Mohammedan fanatics are applying the torch in all quarters of Asia Minor—Details Are Lacking.

Frenzied Fanatics Are Applying the Torch in All Quarters of Asia Minor—Details Are Lacking.

United Press Telegram.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 17.—Tho British Consul at Adana and Major Doughty Wyke, British Consul at Mersin, have been wounded in the rioting that has raged in this section for the last 48 hours, according to a report that has just reached here.

The latest reports say 2,500 people have been slain in Adana and Mersin and that the massacre of Christians is spreading to other towns. It will likely sweep over all of Asia Minor.

A large part of Adana has been burned and Mohammedan fanatics are applying the torch in all quarters of Asia Minor—Details Are Lacking.

Frenzied Fanatics Are Applying the Torch in All Quarters of Asia Minor—Details Are Lacking.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Emma Barker, aged 28, of North East, Pa., asked to be placed under arrest at Central station, declaring who believed she caused the death of William Anderson at North East, about 10 months ago by administering a philter to him in a cup of coffee. She was held for the North East authorities.

She told the police captain that she inflicted a wound in her own breast and extracted a drop of blood which she put in a cup of coffee, unknown to Anderson, to drink. She told the police that Anderson died about 10 months ago after he drank the philter, from blood poisoning, and she believes the poisoning was caused by coffee she gave Anderson to drink.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Emma Barker, aged 28, of North East, Pa., asked to be placed under arrest at Central station, declaring who believed she caused the death of William Anderson at North East, about 10 months ago by administering a philter to him in a cup of coffee. She was held for the North East authorities.

She told the police captain that she inflicted a wound in her own breast and extracted a drop of blood which she put in a cup of coffee, unknown to Anderson, to drink. She told the police that Anderson died about 10 months ago after he drank the philter, from blood poisoning, and she believes the poisoning was caused by coffee she gave Anderson to drink.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—The world's wheat margin, or visible supply over the amount that will actually be demanded has practically disappeared according to a statement issued today by the big wheat interests of the great European market.

While the precise figures are unavailable at this time, it is said that the conditions in general show a greatly reduced acreage in Europe by reason of the adverse weather. Russia and the Danube country are shipping only half their usual amount, which represents a shortage of 80,000,000 bushels, as compared with 1907.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—The world's wheat margin, or visible supply over the amount that will actually be demanded has practically disappeared according to a statement issued today by the big wheat interests of the great European market.

While the precise figures are unavailable at this time, it is said that the conditions in general show a greatly reduced acreage in Europe by reason of the adverse weather. Russia and the Danube country are shipping only half their usual amount, which represents a shortage of 80,000,000 bushels, as compared with 1907.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—Generalissimo Izet Pash, who has been appointed to command the Balkan forces, has been appointed to command the Balkan forces.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—General

In Social Circles.

Large Meeting.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. George McClay at her home on Highland avenue. The attendance was unusually large and the meeting was one of great interest. The program opened with devotional exercises after which the subject for study was taken up. The subject was "The City Missions and Deaconesses' Work." Mrs. H. T. Crossland read a very interesting paper on the subject after which Mrs. E. Dunn gave a very delightful reading, the subject of which was "Mrs. Howe's New Black Silk Dress." Mrs. W. R. Clapp read a paper written by a foreign girl in the Home Mission School at Uniontown. The subject of the paper was "Slavish and American Young People." Katherine McClay, little daughter of the hostess, delighted the guests with a very pleasing vocal solo.

A social hour followed and refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mrs. McClay, Mrs. John Davis and Mrs. S. G. McCane. The next meeting will be held Friday afternoon, May 21, at the home of Mrs. H. T. Crossland in the West Side.

Well Appointed Card Party.

Well appointed was a large card party at which Mrs. Elliott Baird Edle, and Mrs. Robert Sprague were joint hostesses yesterday afternoon at the Armory. A color scheme of pink and white was prettily carried out with artistic arrangements of ferns and carnations. Thirteen tables, five hundred and five of bridge, were called into requisition and at the close of the games the first prize at bridge was awarded to Mrs. H. C. Hoffman, and the second to Mrs. J. Donald Porter. Mrs. J. G. Ehrenfest, won the first prize at five hundred and Mrs. J. L. Evans' the second five hundred prize. The consolation prize was won by Mrs. V. B. Dennehy. A dainty repast was served.

The out of town guests present were Misses Elizabeth Sterling, Myrtle and Jennie Mathews of Uniontown, Miss Lillian Wright of Buckhannon, W. Va., Mrs. Naunton McKee and Mrs. R. G. Fendrich of Pittsburgh, and Miss Ruth Sheriff of California, Pa.

Nominate Officers.

Officers for the ensuing month were nominated yesterday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Connellsville Literary Society held in the Carnegie Free Library hall. The election will take place at the next meeting. The subject of the debate was "Resolved, That a person's education may be judged by their manner of speech." The question was decided in favor of the negative. The paper was read by Fred Hezel.

Aid Society Meets.

A well attended meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist Church was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Anna Evans on Johnson avenue. The regular routine business was transacted after which a social hour was held and refreshments served.

Reception and Dance.

The first annual reception and dance of Lodge No. 46, Royal Order of Moose will be held in the Armory Monday evening. Dancing from 8:30 until 2 A. M. and cards from 9 o'clock until midnight. Music will be furnished by Kilmer's orchestra.

Cards and Fancy Work.

Mrs. E. L. Sherrick will entertain at cards next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home on East Washington avenue. On Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Mrs. Sherrick will entertain at fancy work.

SEASON CLOSES WITH "THE WITCHING HOUR"

The Last High Class Attraction That Will Probably Appear at Solson This Season.

The theatrical season at the Solson will practically close on April 28th with "The Witching Hour," one of the Shubert's big hits and the company which comes to the Solson has played but few one-night stands this year. It was booked here some weeks ago but cancelled in order to fill in a week's engagement at Buffalo N. Y.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

"Wouldn't Pay Me For The Relief Got From Piles."

"For 10 years I suffered with piles, brought on by any strain or hard work. Since using Item-Roid eight months ago, I have not had an attack, can do any labor and eat what I wish without ill effect. I would not be in my former condition for $500."

(Signed) Wm. McAdams, Cook's Falls, N. Y.

Sworn to before notary, Mar. 23, '09.

Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, an internal tablet cure for piles, is sold for $1 by A. A. Clarke, Connellsville, and is fully guaranteed. Dr. Leonhardt Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y.

PITTSBURG DISTRICT ASKS RECIPROCATION

Plan Proposed by Which Duty on Coal Shipped Into Canada May Be Removed.

Pittsburg district coal men are now fighting for the principle of reciprocity. At present coal sent into Canada is dutiable at from 40 to 67 cents a ton. It is desired by the operators that this duty be removed through some kind of reciprocity arrangement with Canada. This will be one of the features of the tariff debate in the United States Senate next week.

Arrayed against the Pittsburg and Ohio interests, however, are the West Virginia and Central Pennsylvania coal companies, who fear that their markets in New England would be curtailed by the entrance of Nova Scotia coal into that field. Then the Dominion Coal Company of Nova Scotia is preparing to fight reciprocity on the other side for fear of losing its trade in Canada. It is fighting, however, against the demands of Ontario and the northwest Canadian sections, which want free coal from the States.

W. R. Woodford of the Rail & River Coal Company, D. W. and H. A. Kuhn of the Pittsburg and Wastmoreland Coal Company, M. H. Taylor of the Pittsburg Coal Company and several other operators returned yesterday from Washington, where they had conferred with some of the Senators on the reciprocity proposition. While they received promises of cordial support from some, they were opposed by Senator Bitting of West Virginia, who wants a duty of at least 40 cents a ton on Canadian coal, because he fears that West Virginia mines will lose New England tonnage which runs close to 700,000 tons annually, in favor of Nova Scotia coal. Arguments were presented to show that New England pays as high as $2 a ton more for West Virginia coal than Nova Scotia coal at the present time, because of the preference for the superior American product, and this was held to be sufficient to answer any fear of competition of a series nature with the Canadian company.

NEW OFFICERS OF PITTSBURG COAL

Five Vice Presidents Have Been Selected and the Names of Four Made Public.

A radical reorganization of the official family of the Pittsburg Coal Company, as a result of the resignation of Walter R. Woodford as first vice president of the company some three weeks ago, was announced yesterday. The board of directors has elected five vice presidents of the corporation, instead of having but two. These are the new officers:

First Vice President, C. E. Wales, who will have charge of the northwest and lake coal trade of the company. Second Vice President, F. M. Walsh, who will have charge of the financial and accounting departments. Third Vice President, George M. Hock, in charge of the operating mines. Fourth Vice President, J. W. Walsh, in charge of the sales department.

The Fifth Vice President, in charge of the traffic and transportation, has been selected, but his name is withheld pending some formalities and will be announced in a few days. It is stated, however, that the new officer is a railroad man of prominence and will be a strong addition to the company's executive staff.

The new officers, C. W. Wales, was Second Vice President and acting in that capacity with Mr. Woodford. F. M. Wallace has been treasurer of the company. George M. Hock has been assistant to the president and J. M. Walsh has been manager of sales of the company. In the past, the duties of Mr. Wales, Mr. Walsh and the new vice president in charge of the traffic and transportation were performed by the First Vice President.

The changes made by the board become effective at once and with this done, the retiring vice president, Mr. Woodford, will give his entire time to his new office as president of the Rail & River Coal Company.

Maxwell Makes Good Time.

Raymond Jewell of Uniontown passed through Connellsville this morning in a little Maxwell touring car. He left Pittsburg yesterday afternoon and drove to Greensburg in an hour and half and covered the distance between Greensburg and here in the same length of time. Mr. Jewell is introducing the car in this section.

Army Clothing Bids.

Bids will be opened within the next few weeks for the largest consignment of army clothing ever purchased in time of peace. This represents a year's supply. The largest single item is for 825,000 yards of olive drab cloth of the new shade of khaki, which has been adopted for summer military wear.

Peach Trees in Bloom.

The peach trees are noticed to be coming into bloom throughout this locality, the birds springing out on some of the trees the plain showing, and on a few almost full bloom showing.

Trees in Blossom.

The large tree in front of the Presbyterian Church blossomed forth this morning and attracted much attention.

FREIGHTERS BUCK THE ICE

Ten Vessels Leave Buffalo For Upper Lake Ports.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 17.—Navigation at this port was opened when ten big lake freighters plowed their way through the ice and made clear water.

John A. E. Jones and two children of Uniontown were calling on friends here this morning.

Mrs. Maurine Smith of Uniontown, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Goodman, of Fairview avenue.

John A. E. Jones and two children of Uniontown were calling on friends here this morning.

Mrs. J. P. K. Miller and daughter, Miss Charlie of Scotland, were conducted to their home by friends.

A. W. Hart and son, Edward, of Greenwood, have returned home from New Castle, where they were called by the death of Mrs. Nedie Leslie.

Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The steamer Charles A. Weston was the first to break through the ice. The steamer was quickly followed by the Dan R. Hanna of the Hutchison fleet. The Hanna broke a propeller blade, however, and was forced to put back.

The News of Nearby Towns.

MT. PLEASANT.

MT. PLEASANT, April 17.—Mrs. Hallie Davis and daughter of Scottdale were calling on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Miller, on Willow street yesterday. Mrs. Davis, who was away for many years prior to her marriage to a well known clerk in the local postoffice.

H. C. Morrison, a local jeweler, lost today his child, who was being a well known clerk in the local postoffice.

Mrs. Edward Cooper and two children are spending a few days with her parents, who reside on a farm near Mount Pleasant.

Herbert Steinman, Thomas Galley and Roy Wilson, local anglers, left yesterday for over the mountains where they will spend a few days fishing.

John Miller, a local young man, and Miller of this place, died Friday, being buried the same day. Clinton of Police, Perry Kollar was supposed to have delivered the sermon, but did not in his appearance, much to the disappointment of the group of spectators.

The Borough Company pleased the large audience that attended the lyric drama, which was given yesterday.

P. C. Koenig of Greensburg was a caller in town yesterday.

J. A. Armbrust of Arbutus and Director of the Poor in Westmoreland county, was also a guest to business meetings in town yesterday.

Oliver Blocker, an employee in House's Dry Goods store is able to be out following a confinement of two weeks caused by an appendicitis. He is doing well and an attack of the grip.

Mrs. Anna Dorley, formerly Miss Anna Miller, and well known in local social circles, but who at the present time is a resident of Westport, paid a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Miller of Willow Street.

C. J. Kenan of New Brighton was a guest at the national hotel Friday. His brother, Fred, was a caller in town last evening.

Justice of the Peace J. W. Hunter was a business caller at Pittsburg on Friday.

One man who took the examination for fire boss at Scottdale a short time ago were notified that the examination was successful and a large number passed.

While a few did not make 100 per cent, satisfactory grades.

Frank G. Miller, a local baker, will leave Saturday for Pittsburgh, Pa., to spend a few days with relatives.

Prof. G. W. Gans of Scottdale was called in town Friday evening.

James Hawke of Jeannette was a caller in town Friday evening.

The last game of basketball this season will be played next Thursday in the Armory when the Jeannette American Girls will play the local High School Girls. A large crowd is expected to be present.

Andrew Mink, manager of Jock's Foreign Exchange Bank, is in possession of a $5 gold piece that was recently found in the new building, the discovery of which was suddenly discontinued. Only a few are in circulation, and it is thought that they will be valuable some day.

Horner Bowman, well known for his business in the hardware & oil business, has resigned his position and will leave Monday for Rockwood, where he has accepted a similar position.

C. A. Nelson, a local baker, will leave Saturday for Pittsburgh, Pa., to spend a few days with relatives.

Prof. G. W. Gans of Scottdale was called in town Friday evening.

James Hawke of Jeannette was a caller in town Friday evening.

The last game of basketball this season will be played next Thursday in the Armory when the Jeannette American Girls will play the local High School Girls. A large crowd is expected to be present.

Andrew Mink, manager of Jock's Foreign Exchange Bank, is in possession of a $5 gold piece that was recently found in the new building, the discovery of which was suddenly discontinued. Only a few are in circulation, and it is thought that they will be valuable some day.

Horner Bowman, well known for his business in the hardware & oil business, has resigned his position and will leave Monday for Rockwood, where he has accepted a similar position.

C. A. Nelson, a local baker, will leave Saturday for Pittsburgh, Pa., to spend a few days with relatives.

Prof. G. W. Gans of Scottdale was called in town Friday evening.

James Hawke of Jeannette was a caller in town Friday evening.

The last game of basketball this season will be played next Thursday in the Armory when the Jeannette American Girls will play the local High School Girls. A large crowd is expected to be present.

Andrew Mink, manager of Jock's Foreign Exchange Bank, is in possession of a $5 gold piece that was recently found in the new building, the discovery of which was suddenly discontinued. Only a few are in circulation, and it is thought that they will be valuable some day.

Horner Bowman, well known for his business in the hardware & oil business, has resigned his position and will leave Monday for Rockwood, where he has accepted a similar position.

C. A. Nelson, a local baker, will leave Saturday for Pittsburgh, Pa., to spend a few days with relatives.

Prof. G. W. Gans of Scottdale was called in town Friday evening.

James Hawke of Jeannette was a caller in town Friday evening.

The last game of basketball this season will be played next Thursday in the Armory when the Jeannette American Girls will play the local High School Girls. A large crowd is expected to be present.

Andrew Mink, manager of Jock's Foreign Exchange Bank, is in possession of a $5 gold piece that was recently found in the new building, the discovery of which was suddenly discontinued. Only a few are in circulation, and it is thought that they will be valuable some day.

Horner Bowman, well known for his business in the hardware & oil business, has resigned his position and will leave Monday for Rockwood, where he has accepted a similar position.

C. A. Nelson, a local baker, will leave Saturday for Pittsburgh, Pa., to spend a few days with relatives.

Prof. G. W. Gans of Scottdale was called in town Friday evening.

James Hawke of Jeannette was a caller in town Friday evening.

The last game of basketball this season will be played next Thursday in the Armory when the Jeannette American Girls will play the local High School Girls. A large crowd is expected to be present.

Andrew Mink, manager of Jock's Foreign Exchange Bank, is in possession of a $5 gold piece that was recently found in the new building, the discovery of which was suddenly discontinued. Only a few are in circulation, and it is thought that they will be valuable some day.

Horner Bowman, well known for his business in the hardware & oil business, has resigned his position and will leave Monday for Rockwood, where he has accepted a similar position.

C. A. Nelson, a local baker, will leave Saturday for Pittsburgh, Pa., to spend a few days with relatives.

Prof. G. W. Gans of Scottdale was called in town Friday evening.

James Hawke of Jeannette was a caller in town Friday evening.

The last game of basketball this season will be played next Thursday in the Armory when the Jeannette American Girls will play the local High School Girls. A large crowd is expected to be present.

Andrew Mink, manager of Jock's Foreign Exchange Bank, is in possession of a $5 gold piece that was recently found in the new building, the discovery of which was suddenly discontinued. Only a few are in circulation, and it is thought that they will be valuable some day.

Horner Bowman, well known for his business in the hardware & oil business, has resigned his position and will leave Monday for Rockwood, where he has accepted a similar position.

C. A. Nelson, a local baker, will leave Saturday for Pittsburgh, Pa., to spend a few days with relatives.

Prof. G. W. Gans of Scottdale was called in town Friday evening.

James Hawke of Jeannette was a caller in town Friday evening.

DUNBAR.

CONFLUENCE.

CONFERENCE.

Less Than Half to Pay For ## Ladies' Swell Sample Suits.

$45.00 Values at $24.75
at This Sale For

That's the startling sensation of this season. Buying is now in full swing but the greatest crowds that ever visited this store should respond to this announcement.

These suits are the swaggiest of dashing Spring styles—sample suits from foremost American designers and manufacturers. Samples represent the best that can be produced. Have to be the best—because the manufacturers' business amounting to thousands and thousands of dollars, depends on the way his sample suits impress buyers.

Manufacturers season being over these sample suits were closed out to us at less than what they cost to make—sizes were broken—too many of one size, not enough of another to sell as regular stock. As these are model suits very few are alike in style—you thus get individual style.

YOU GET THE MAXIMUM OF STYLE
IN THIS PHENOMENAL OFFERING.

All the most stylish fabrics, all the swellest styles, all the most favored colorings—but not all sizes—SO HURRY.

Remember $24.75
Only . . .

To Pay For Sample Suits Worth $45.00.

ON SALE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

VERY SPECIAL
Women's $15 Tailor
Made Suits

$9.90

The $9.90 Suits are correct as to style and the tailoring shows the care given in every detail. Newest materials in prettiest greens, blues, browns, Saturday only.....$9.90

Women's & Misses'
$7.50 Tailor Made Skirts

$4.40

Made of Panama, in black, blue and brown; also fancier, in the newest flare styles, neatly trimmed; excellent assortment of styles. Values up to $7.50. For Friday and Saturday only.....$4.40

The Daily Courier.

Entered as second-class matter at the post office, Connellsville.

THE COURIER COMPANY, Publishers,
The Daily Courier,
The Weekly Courier.H. P. SNYDER,
President and Managing Editor.
J. H. S. HUMMEL,
Secretary and Treasurer.
Office, The Courier Building, 127½ Main Street, Connellsville, Pa.TELEPHONE RINGS, News Department and Composing Room: Tri-State 748.
Bell 12-Rings 2.
Business Department and Job Department: Tri-State 56.
Bell 12-Rings 2.ADVERTISING.
The DAILY COURIER has double the circulation of any newspaper in Fayette county or the Connellsville coke region, and it is better known than any other newspaper in the county. It is the only paper that presents each week sworn statements of circulation.
The WEEKLY COURIER is recommended by all of Connellsville as a special value as an industrial journal and an advertising medium for such interests.SUBSCRIPTION.
DAILY, 50¢ per month; per copy,
WEEKLY, $1.00 per year; 10¢ per copy.
PAY NO MONEY to carriers, but only to telegraph or express companies.
An irregularity or a reversion in the delivery of The Courier to homes by the carriers in Connellsville or our agents, or any other place, should be reported to this office at once.

SATURDAY EVE. APRIL 17, 1909.

THE WORST GAMBLING
GAME IN THE WORLD.The corner in wheat engineered by James A. Patten, a Chicago speculator, has increased the price of that commodity to such a point as to seriously affect the whole country and particularly the poor man who is confronted with a material increase in his cost of living. This condition has already attracted the attention of President Taft and the Congress, and both are considering what remedies shall be employed to protect the people against this latest exhibition of the rapacity of Predatory Wealth.It is alleged that Patten could not have effected his corner in wheat without the collusion on the active aid of the railroad interests, and that the Interstate Commerce Commission should investigate and punish the offenders.The whole practice of speculation in the necessities of life is now under consideration in Congress with a view to legislating so strictly against it that it will become impossible in the future. Patten himself declares that his reports on the wheat situation come from experts, and not from the statistics of the Federal Government, which are gathered by country merchants, "who do not know what they are talking about," but there is room for suspecting that the government statistics have been the real basis of his speculations and that what was intended for good purposes has been used for evil ends. If this be so, stringent laws against such practices are demanded not only by the urgency, but also by the equity of the situation.Germany and France have enacted similar laws and they have been found to be efficacious. There is no reason why they should not be made so here.Gambling in the poor man's food is the most reprehensible gambling game ever invented. It beats lousy dice or stacked cards. The big losers in the whole game is the workingman and the family, and they are never permitted a chance in the play.THE PUBLICATION OF TRIENNIAL ASSESSMENTS.The publication of the triennial assessments has been from time to time suggested as one of the best possible means of insuring equitable taxation.A bill requiring such publication in the newspapers of the proper counties was introduced late in the Legislative session and passed the Senate, but it failed to get through the House before adjournment.Three years ago the School Directors' Association of Westmoreland County caused a number of the assessments to be published in the newspapers. The result was a marked increase in many valuations, resulting from complaints and evidence submitted by other taxpayers whose properties had been rated comparatively higher.The newspapers are now publishing some of the assessments of Connellsville and other towns, but such publications do not deserve to be complete, or at least more comprehensive. Such publications the publishers cannot well afford to make at their individual expense. It is, therefore, unfortunate that the bill mentioned above did not become a law.The cost of such publications would not be so great, and the money would be profitably spent, since the rectification of wrong valuations, and the consequent equity, would repay the cost of publication many times over both directly and indirectly.WHEN IT IS BETTER TO ERR ON THE SAFE SIDE.The Somerset county court has confirmed the damage verdict against a landlord who sold whisky to a man who was subsequently killed on the railroad, and whose widow brought suit on the ground that she had not told the landlord not to sell her husband intoxicants any more.The custom of members of families notifying the proprietors of barrooms not to sell intoxicants to other members of their families has no warrant in law known to us save that which rests upon the allegation that the persons named are "persons of known intemperate habits," and thus fall with in the inhibition of the law.Concerning such persons such notices may be given by anybody or by nobody: the landlord remains liable without notice; but with notice he is apt to be more careful in observing thestrict letter of the law in such particular cases. The Somersett damage case probably hinged rather upon the reputation of the man for sobriety than upon the fact of the notice.This particular portion of the licensee law is not as strictly enforced as it should be, and the Somersett county case should be a warning to landlords everywhere to exercise due caution. In a matter of this kind, it is better to err on the safe side; and an error of this kind is better for everybody concerned from every standpoint of business and morality.BURGESS EVANS' VETO VOICES PUBLIC SENTIMENT.Burgess Evans' veto of the street naming ordinance voices public sentiment and will probably appeal to the further consideration of the Town Council.What we have hitherto had to say upon this question has not been prompted by any spirit of factious opposition to the acts of the Street Committee or the action of the Town Council, but only by an urgent desire to promote the public good.
In this connection it may be said that it is the right and the duty of public newspapers to discuss public questions. The columns of the daily newspaper is the forum of public opinion, and the trend of that opinion is unerringly expressed theron.It is now generally admitted that there are good business reasons for not changing the name of Main street on this side of the river, and for extending the name to the thoroughfare which is a continuation of it on the other side of the river.Objection is made that the naming of this thoroughfare "street" conflicts with the general plan suggested that all streets running east and west shall be designated as "avenues" and all streets running north and south shall be designated as "streets;" but this is a minor matter, and Main street may be allowed to remain as an exception to the general rule, being a principal thoroughfare; or it may be brought within the rule by calling it
"Main avenue."The main thing about the name is that it should remain "Main."Justice as between foreigners is not perhaps as suggestive in the courts as it should be. There is too often a disposition on the part of jurors to think of particular consequences to Americans, and perhaps in one sense they are not, but the justice and integrity of the courts should always be upheld, no matter who the litigants are, nor how trifling their disputes.Burgess Evans ran his pen through Penn avenue."Marathon racing is not without its dangers to the runners.The glorification of the legal is sufficing somewhat to turn the general tide
of public opinion. The congregations of the Connellsville region are forced
to the conclusion that it is a poor children to attempt the building of new church
edifices.Secret marriages are seldom advised from any point of view.The Dawson Sluy who sought death's sojourn beneath the turbulent torrent of the Yough might have been spared to a life of usefulness had he not committed such a foolish act, and when his fatal plunge would not have been more serious than a bath.It would seem that Editor Tresca lived in the traditional glass house.The Income Tax has entered into the Taft question via Texas. The passage of such a measure would either result in an immense revenue to the Government or an immense addition to the membership of the American Club.The Glass and the Coke Mergers are reported to be on the way, but the new Steel Combine has not recently been heard from even by wireless.There is nothing more contentious over the terms of a coal option than
a deal is made, and then the volume of contention depends wholly upon the size of the profits."A Scrap of Paper" will be presented by the pupils of the High School, we are told. The Fourth Ward schools have been presenting with numerous scraps of paper all year, but we hope that this particular
"Scrap" will be more acceptable than
the others.Burgess Evans indicates a purpose
to be the power behind the Board of Health throne. He will supply a long-list.Colonel Liking is having the right of his life just now, but that is what the Kentucky blood lives on.

Little Willie's Idea of a Steel Magnate.

THERE IS JOY IN THE LAND ONCE AGAIN.

WHICH DOES HE MEAN?

(Advertisement)

"I thought the matter should be submitted to all the Democratic lawyers of the county, and especially to those whose names were mentioned as probable candidates, and let them discuss it and consult with each other and their clients throughout the county, and so DETERMINE and INDICATE WHO, in their judgment, the DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE SHOULD BE, and I stated my opinion and sincerely that so far as my being a candidate is concerned, the judgment and wishes of the Democratic lawyers and their clients would DETERMINE THE MATTER and I would be controlled thereby and act accordingly."

Judge Umbel's announcement, March 31, 1909.

ANOTHER INDUSTRY
FOR THIS COUNTYClay Products and Quarrying of Block Stone To Start Near Dunbar.Marathon racing is not without its dangers to the runners.The glorification of the legal is suf-
ficing somewhat to turn the general tide
of public opinion. The congregations
of the Connellsville region are forced
to the conclusion that it is a poor children to attempt the building of new church
edifices.Secret marriages are seldom advised from any point of view.The Dawson Sluy who sought death's sojourn beneath the turbulent torrent of
the Yough might have been spared to
a life of usefulness had he not committed
such a foolish act, and when his fatal plunge would not have been more serious than a bath.It would seem that Editor Tresca lived in the traditional glass house.The Income Tax has entered into the Taft question via Texas. The passage of such a measure would either
result in an immense revenue to the Government or an immense addition
to the membership of the American Club.The Glass and the Coke Mergers are reported to be on the way, but the new Steel Combine has not recently been heard from even by wireless.There is nothing more contentious
over the terms of a coal option than
a deal is made, and then the volume of contention depends wholly upon the size of the profits."A Scrap of Paper" will be presented by the pupils of the High School, we are told. The Fourth Ward schools have been presenting with numerous scraps of paper all year, but
we hope that this particular
"Scrap" will be more acceptable than
the others.Burgess Evans indicates a purpose
to be the power behind the Board of Health throne. He will supply a long-list.Colonel Liking is having the right
of his life just now, but that is what the Kentucky blood lives on.

Little Willie's Idea of a Steel Magnate.

Joseph G. May, of Uniontown, Had Been Unable To Eat For Past Six Weeks.UNIONTOWN, April 17.—Fully realizing that death was a question of only a short time and compelled to suffer the tortures of starvation, Joseph G. May, a well known citizen of Whysel addition, sank into unconsciousness Saturday night without having had food for six weeks. Thursday night at 9 o'clock he died.Mr. May was a victim of cancer of the stomach. More than six weeks ago he was taken violently ill and went to bed. From that time until his death his stomach refused to retain food.Joseph G. May was born and reared near Flatwoods, and had spent all his life in Fayette county. He was a photographer and traveled all over this county and Westmoreland, taking pictures, and in this manner made hundreds of acquaintances. For several years he had lived in this vicinity.
Surviving are a wife and daughter, Florina; two sisters, Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Vernon, of Brownsville; two uncles, Wesley and Wilton Ball, of Flatwoods, and an aunt, Mrs. John Ball of West Brownsville.

DUNN'S CASH STORES.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

129, 131, and 133 N. Pittsburg Street.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Western Penna.—Partly cloudy today, probably local showers; Sunday, fair, slightly cooler.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

TOWELS 50% OFF.

Towels were over looked on our big ad, a wonder
too. If they are last they are not least of our many
bargains.

HOME TALENT SCORES BIG HIT.

Pete Stout's "Pinafore" Created a Surprise Last Night.

NEW STAGE POSSIBILITIES

Developed at the Performance, Which Was a Finished One—Company D Criticized for Not Taking an Interest.

"Pinafore," presented by the Connellsville Opera Club, a local organization, under the direction of C. E. Stout, was able to capture all the honors for a home talent company at the initial performance. There was only one feature to mar an otherwise successful evening. That was the drearily small house which greeted the first performance. The audience was a big disappointment to those who were interested, and a hard blow to Director Stout, who worked like a Trojan, to present a good production.

Company D is criticized for its apparent lack of interest. The commanding officers of the company turned out, and a squad of troopers acted as ushers, but the players say that, aside from a few enthusiasts who worked for the success of the play, they received no assistance from the organization. The Company D boys disposed of a few tickets and the rank and file failed to attend the show Terrible.

Those few who attended last evening were more than satisfied. When Director Stout predicted that his production would surprise his audience, he made no mistake. He presented a well balanced cast of principals while the chorus was certainly no good, but not a shade better than anything of the kind that has been given here in recent years. The chorus possessed volume that was unexpected for even by those who have watched the opera in the making. Especially in the finale of each act did the voices come over the footlights with a tone which carried to the furthermost corner of the house. In stage presence, too, the participants showed they were well drilled.

Miss Louise Cole, to whom was assigned the part of "Josephine," made her initial appearance as a principal. She made a hit. Her clear and sweet soprano voice proved a surprise. As "Buttercup" Mrs. Margaret Davies Newcomer probably had a shade on the others. "Mrs. Newcomer" is one of the few amateurs who possess voice and at the same time know how to act. Good singers, as a rule, are poor actors, outside of the professional ranks, but Mrs. Newcomer is an exception. Her rendition of "Buttercup" was excellent.

W. J. Oglebrite presented the difficult role of "Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B." Manager Fred Robbins of the Solomons, who has seen Oglebrite in every performance he has participated in here, says he made the hit of his life last night. Joe had a difficult part and can be pardoned for getting a little key off in his opening song and forgetting a line or two of his dialogue. He promises better things in the two performances today. His makeup was splendid, and his portrayal of the part was all that could be expected of an amateur. Leslie A. Howard played "Captain Corcoran" in an able manner, but he, too, missed some of the dialogue. However, this was no easy part, and, handicapped by a cold which has bothered him for more than a week back, "Captain Corcoran" made port with flying colors.

James L. Barnes made an ideal "Dick Deadeye." Barnes knew his lines to the letter, injected enough comedy in the part to provoke a laugh at the right time, and sang his part with a rich, deep bass voice that was a pleasure to hear. "Dad" Buttermore, of Elks' Minstrel fame, did the comedy end in his ownimitable way portraying the part of the "Silent Marine." His costume was a joke, while his song, "Old He Ran," made a hit with the audience.

Frank Huston played the part of "Ralph Rackstraw." Huston's voice is lacking in volume, perhaps, but he knows how to act and isn't afraid to play his part. John Davis will sing "Ralph Rackstraw" this afternoon, while Huston will go in the part again this evening.

C. Bill Noyan, as "Willie Bobstay, Boatwain," had little to do, but he did that well. The same can be said of Master Willie Girard, the "Mild-schaper," and Miss Mildred Miller, as "Hebe." As for the chorus, it worked like clockwork.

In the story of the play the work of Mrs. Charles E. Stout, who directed the music, must not be forgotten. Mrs. Stout saved the show on several occasions when the principals verged on stage fright. Her prompt action got the players in line so quickly that the audience could scarcely notice the rough spots. Last night's performance was really the first dress rehearsal. The show will move more smoothly this afternoon and this evening when it will be repeated.

Farmers in Session.
The regular monthly meeting of the Union Farmers' Club of Fayette county is being held today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Freed at Highland Farm, Blawie township. The morning session convened at 11 o'clock. The topic for discussion is "Fashions."

BIG COAL DEED FILED.

Consideration Over One Million Dollars—Other Greene County Sales.

WAYNESBURG, April 17.—The deed for the block of 5,100 acres of coal north of Waynesburg, in Franklin, Washington and Morris townships, sold by J. B. Adams, R. F. Hopwood, and others to J. V. Thompson, O. M. Dougherty and others, was filed here this week. The consideration is $1,057,000.

By a deed dated April 5, 1903, J. W. Hibbs conveys to Cora A. Autran, of Uniontown, an interest equal to nearly one-twenty-fifth in 2,512 acres of coal in Richhill township. Consideration, $25,000.

By deed dated February 11, 1909, E. S. Minor, J. C. Stewart, J. W. Minor, G. B. Waychoff, Jennie Waychoff and Margaret and John Craft, convey to J. V. Thompson 75 acres of coal in Jefferson township. Consideration, $22,500.

By deed dated March 11, W. F. Blair conveys to H. B. Blair a three-fifth interest in 225 acres in Jackson township. Consideration, $1.

By deed dated March 31, 1909, E. D. and Fenton S. Clarke, of Woodstock, R. I., convey one-half of 43 acres in Springhill to Mrs. Fenton Terwillige.

GYMNASIA EXHIBITION

To Be Given By The Y. M. C. A. at the Colonial Theatre Thursday.

The gymnastic exhibition to be given at the Colonial theatre next Thursday, April 22, will embrace all forms of work as conducted in the local Y. M. C. A. The various classes are arranged along line and the exhibition promises to be the best ever seen here. The program is comparatively short, well arranged and the work is of the highest order. On Monday night, April 19th at 7:30 P. M. the reserved seat sale will open at the Y. M. C. A. building. The program will be as follows:

Bunting Drill.....Junior Class
Gymnastic Games.....Intermediate Class
Gymnastics.....Junior Class
Exercise on Parallel Bars.....Senior Class

Presentation of medals to members of the Intermediate and Junior classes.

Wand Drill.....Intermediate Class
Indian Club, Swinging, Advanced
...Mens' Whipping and Reach Tumbling, Boxes and Gymnastic Pencils.

Mr. Adams, Physical Director, Scottland Y. M. C. A.; Mr. Prosch, Physical Director, Connellsville Y. M. C. A.; Pyramids, Junior and Intermediate Classes.

Vaudeville Next Week.
Maximus, the Russian strong man, is the feature of the vaudeville show to be given in the Solason theatre, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 19, 20 and 21. He is a youth of tremendous proportions, a giant in strength and another Sandow of perfect physical development.

Bernard & Harris will appear in a song and dance sketch. They are a very neat young couple, paragons of fashion, and endowed with good singing voices.

Francis Wood will exhibit his skill as a manipulator of hoops. He has a fashion of making the hoops go whirling over his head, and by a clever twist of the wrist compels them to execute most artistic and amazing evolutions.

The Weston Sisters will entertain with songs, dances and comedy, concluding their act with a very scrappy boxing specialty. They are nimble of foot and quick of action and their boxing bout will give very good account of themselves.

Merle Golden will play selections both popular and classic on the violin. He is said to be a really wonderful performer.

Red Notes.

Do you suffer the embarrassment of carrying around an extremely red nose? Or are you tortured with a red, blotchy or plump face? If so you are foolish to stand it so long; it is the simplest and easiest thing in the world to get rid of. No matter what might have been the cause, the following will remove all traces of your embarrassment in from two to four weeks.

Get this prescription filled at any Drug Store. Clearon one-half ounce, Ether one ounce, Alcohol seven ounces.

Mix and apply to the parts affected as often as possible, but morning and night anyway, allowing it to remain on as long as possible, never less than ten minutes, the longer the better, then you can wipe off the powdery film deposited on the skin.

You can get this put up at any Drug Store.

For any skin troubles this has no equal.

To Continue Holiday Rates.

Passenger rates for the Fourth of July and other holidays this summer will be given by practically all the lines both east and west of Pittsburgh, according to semi-official statements made in Pittsburgh yesterday. These rates will be taken up at the May meeting of the Central Passenger Association for the lines between Pittsburgh and Chicago and by the Trans-Canada Association for the roads east of Pittsburgh and Erie. Strong opposition to the low fares has developed on the part of some of the larger railroads systems, but it is believed that special rates will be given.

Warning.

Beware of persons traveling around selling clothing under my name. They are swindlers. I have no agents, Dave Cohen, Tailor.

TO CHECK EPIDEMIC IS OFFICER'S PLAN.

Scottsdale Board of Health Fears for Spread of Measles.

NEGLECT TO REPORT CASES

Householders Who Shield or Hide the Disease in Their Homes Are in Danger of Heavy Penalties—Must Report Communicable Disease Whether Doctor Is in or Not.

SCOTTDALE, April 17.—In the face of a threatening and widespread epidemic of measles, which has now reached the proportions of a small epidemic, Health Officer Frank P. Goshorn desires to call the attention of all citizens to Section 29 of the ordinance regulating the Board of Health, which says that he understands has been greatly abused, with special reference to people not reporting measles and whooping cough where there is no physician called in. When there is a physician called the latter unpleasantly and under condemnation usually of the family must report these cases promptly or throw himself liable to a heavy fine. The parent or householder is under the same responsibility and liable to punishment if they do not report the disease. In such cases the danger to the public is much greater from these hide-outs or smuggled cases, so as to speak from those which are reported and placarded.

As will be observed where the householder knows there is a disease, such as whooping cough, measles, scarlet fever or diphtheria he is compelled to report the same to the local Board of Health. If he does not report he is subject to a fine.

The Department of Health of Pennsylvania does not look upon either measles or whooping cough as so many people, as harmless childhood diseases, that every child should enjoy. "Measles" says State Commissioner Dixon, "is by no means the harmless disease it is thought to be by many people, since it is shown by the statistics of the Department of Health that in some epidemics more children die from measles than from scarlet fever. For this reason it is imperative that a physician be summoned and every possible effort made to check the spread of the disease. Whooping cough is a very fatal disease, especially in infants and young children, therefore it is always advisable to summon a physician and make every possible effort to prevent the spread of the disease. The patient should be kept entirely away from other children or adults who have not had the disease. If confined to a room, the windows should be screened, and all upholstered furniture and curtains taken out. An abundance of fresh air should be admitted to the room in measles or whooping cough, but the patient should be screened from any direct draughts and in measles from strong light. The air of the sick room cannot be disinfected in either case while the patient is occupying it. To prevent infection being spread a sheet saturated with bichloride of mercury may be hung in the doorway. The physician will tell you what solution to use. The practice of hanging up cloths saturated with carbolic acid or placing saucers or chlorinated lime or preparatory disinfectants in the sick room, is not only unnecessary to the patient, but utterly useless if not injurious. Care should be exercised in handling everything about the sick room."

The section of the ordinance referred to says:

"Whenever any householder knows that any person has any communicable disease, dangerous to the public health he shall immediately (notice the immediately) report the same to the Board of Health, giving the street number or location of the house."

A number of complaints have been made to the Health Officer that certain people are sending their children to the public school or Sunday School with whooping cough or from homes where measles exist which is contrary to law, and which will not be permitted, since it spreads the opportunity for a great epidemic. In the case of the existing smallpox epidemic the Health Officer says he hopes it will not be necessary to take any householder or close any schools.

Get this prescription filled at any Drug Store. Clearon one-half ounce, Ether one ounce, Alcohol seven ounces.

Mix and apply to the parts affected as often as possible, but morning and night anyway, allowing it to remain on as long as possible, never less than ten minutes, the longer the better, then you can wipe off the powdery film deposited on the skin.

You can get this put up at any Drug Store.

For any skin troubles this has no equal.

Sunday Services in the Churches.

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, E. A. E. Palmer, Executive Will road, East Park Office hours 1:30 to 2 P. M., except Mondays, Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, AGING to custom certificates of confirmation and baptism will be distributed to all those who were received into the church membership on Easter morning. The pastor, Rev. E. H. Burgess, will preach at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., Bible school at 9:30 A. M. Every member is welcome to use the building and invited to the service for an evening.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, South Pittsburg street and Fairview avenue. The building will be open on Sunday from 2 to 8 P. M. At 8 P. M. there will be a meeting for men only, in charge of David T. Brown. Every man is welcome to use the building and invited to the service for an evening.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH, Minister, J. Z. Adams, 1030 A. M., Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

LABOR LEADERS CALL UPON TAFT.

Injunction and Other Questions Are Discussed.

PRESIDENT REITERATES VIEWS

Says He Will Be Glad to Consult With Representatives of Organized Labor When the Anti-Injunction Measure Comes Up Again Before Congress.

Washington, April 17.—President Taft discussed the problems of the workingmen for two hours with the members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, which is in session in this city.

The labor leaders, headed by Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, called at the White House to present to the president a number of matters of vital interest to organized labor. They found the chief magistrate keenly attentive and deeply interested. Mr. Gompers declared, and not only did he give the spokesman of the party all the time they desired to lay their matters before him, but joined himself in the discussion on time to time to bring out fuller information on the various subjects as they were reached.

In the delegation which saw the president were the representatives of most of the trades affiliated with the American Federation, and among them a number of leaders who stubbornly opposed Mr. Taft in his presidential campaign. But the greeting within the executive office was cordial alike to Mr. Gompers and to all who accompanied him.

When the conference had reached its close the president told his callers that he would investigate such of the matters presented which seemed to him to require such action and that he would be glad to help, so far as his opportunities would permit, in arriving at a proper solution of the difficulties in which the working people find themselves, while at the same time keeping the interest of the whole people in view.

President Taft told the labor leaders that he regarded the matter of an anti-injunction law as one of the most important of his administration. He had made his position clear on the subject in his speech of acceptance last July at Cleveland and had confirmed that position in his inaugural address. The president said he would be glad to consult further with the representatives of organized labor on its amendments, etc., when a bill for the next congress has been framed.

Dr. Charles P. Neill, the government commissioner of labor, was present throughout the hearing. The members of the executive council who called were: Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison, James Duncan, John Mitchell, James O'Connell, Mex Morris, William Huber, John B. Lonnon, John B. Alpine and Joseph Valentine.

WILL BE HIGH JINKS TONIGHT

Famous Gridiron Club to Entertain President and Others at Dinner.

Washington, April 17.—The wicked tariff will cease from troubling and the weary senators and representatives will be at rest for one brief while anyway. Democrats and Republicans, tariff revisionists and stampeters will gather tonight at the spring dinner of the famous and noisy Gridiron club and forget their troubles.

It will be the last dinner of the session given by the organization of newspaper correspondents and other good fellows whose dinner dollars are reported all over the country and in some foreign lands.

President Taft and the members of his cabinet will be guests at the dinner, and among other distinguished men who will swell the list of notables will be Admiral Sperry, who was in command of the fleet which went around the world. The postmaster general of Canada has accepted an invitation also. A number of the diplomatic corps will be present and senators and representatives too numerous to mention.

BOUND TO BE SMASH

Joseph Only Man Who Ever Cornered Wheat, Says Secretary Wilson.

Washington, April 17.—"The only successful corner in wheat I ever heard of was one Joseph had in Biblical days," declared Secretary of Agriculture Wilson when he was asked for an opinion as to the Patton operations on the Chicago board of trade.

"To successfully corner the wheat market," continued the secretary, "you have got to keep buying, buying and buying. Finally the time comes when you can't buy any more and then there is a smash."

MILLING COMPANY FAILS

High Price of Grain Undoing of Chillicothe, O., Concern.

Chillicothe, O., April 17.—Following the rise in grain prices an involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed by the Marfield Milling company of this city.

The company was controlled by Edwin Little Ferguson of Louisville, Ky. No assets or liabilities are given but it was unambiguously stated that if the plant sells for $100,000 all creditors will be paid in full.

Endeavor to do the duty and thou will know thy dignity—Socrates.

SLOWLY BUT SURELY

Boys' Dun's Review, Volume of Trade Is Expanding.

New York, April 17.—Dun's Weekly Review of Trade says today:

"Although the movement of trade is slow, it is of large volume and steadily in the direction of improvement. Iron and steel the structural lines continue to reflect a broader demand, contracts placed thus far this month comprising a very substantial tonnage and considerable new business is also in sight. The railroads are taking advantage of the low prices named to make necessary improvements and extensions, while the advancing season has stimulated building activity in many sections. One encouraging feature is the increased interest shown in pig iron."

"Improvement in the shoe market is steady, although the movement is quiet. Some western and southern wholesalers have begun to place fall orders for summer delivery. Shipments of shoes from Boston for this year thus far show an increase of about 25 per cent as compared with the corresponding period a year ago. Some concessions are being made in price."

DON'T WANT THE OFFICE

William J. Bryan Makes Statement on Senatorship.

Little Rock, Ark., April 17.—Asked today relative to a report from Washington that he would be a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator E. J. Burkett of Nebraska for reelection, William J. Bryan said: "I will not say I will not under any circumstances be a candidate, but I would prefer not to be."

"There is no foundation for the report that I have decided positively to enter the race. I would rather have someone else nominated. We have a number of excellent Democrats who are worthy of the place and I would rather see one of them elected than hold the office myself."

Bryan Too Strong For Clark.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 17.—Following the address of Congressman Frank Clark on the floor of the lower house of the Florida legislature in defense of his speech denouncing William J. Bryan in congress, the house unanimously adopted a resolution inviting Mr. Bryan to speak to the legislature during the present session. The senate concurred and a telegraphic invitation was sent to Mr. Bryan.

DAUGHTERS AT TEA TODAY

Preparation For Next Week's Contest Over Presidency.

Washington, April 17.—One of the chief events preceding the congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which opens Monday, is the tea to be given this afternoon by Mrs. James S. Sherman, wife of the vice president.

Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York, the candidate of the insurgents for president-general against Mrs. Mathew T. Scott of Illinois, the choice of the administration forces, will be the honor guest.

Following the lead of Mrs. McLean, President-General of the society, who announced that she would not attend Mrs. Sherman's tea, Mrs. Scott stated that she would also be absent.

EASY FOR SARAH KOTEN

Woman Who Killed Dr. Auspitz May Get Light Sentence.

New York, April 17.—Sentences in the case of Sarah Koten, following her plea of guilty to manslaughter in the first degree for the killing of Dr. Martin W. Auspitz, was postponed to Tuesday next.

Justice Bloughard said he would make a careful examination of the case. The woman probation officer, who had been requested by the court to look into the matter, reported a recommendation that the woman be given either a short prison term or else sent to the Bedford Reformatory for Women, where she would be allowed to take her baby.

PITTSBURG MARKETS.

Hutter-Elgin prints, $1@31/2¢; tubs, 30¢@31¢; Pennsylvania and Ohio creamery, 271/2¢@28¢.

Eggs—Fresh candled, 211/2¢; mark, 21¢.

Potatoes—Fancy, $1.10@1.20; choice, $1.05@1.10.

Apples—Fancy, $6.75@6.96.

Poultry (Live) — Hens, 16@17¢; cocks, $1.25@14¢; turkeys, $10@11¢.

Herr's Island Live Stock.

Cattle—Supply light; market steady.

Choice, $6.40@6.65; prime, $6.20@6.35; good, $6.30@6.45; fair, $6.15@6.40; bulls, $6.30@6.25; heifers, $6.15@6.75; common to good cows, $1.00@1.05; fresh cows and springers, $25@27¢.

Sheep and Lambs—Supply light and market slow on sheep and strong on lambs. Prime wethers, $6.20@6.35; good mixed, $4.90@5.15; fair mixed, $4.40@4.80; culs and common, $2.50@3.50; lambs, $4.50@4.80; veal culs, $7.50@7.75; heavy and thin culs, $5@5.50; spring lambs, $8@8.50.

Hogs—Receipts five double decks; market lower. Prime heavy hogs, $1.50@1.75.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, April 17.—A large part of the loss sustained on the severe slump in wheat prices yesterday was regained today and the market closed strong, with prices 3@4 cent lower to 14@15 cent higher, compared with the previous close. Corn and oats displayed unusual strength, the May delivery of the former touching a new high point for the season. Provisions also closed firm. Closing prices:

Wheat—May, 127¢; July, 117. Corn—May, 45¢@62¢; July, 87.14@87.5¢.

Oats—May, 55¢@55¢; July, 45¢.

CAPTAIN HAINS, WIFE WHO MAY OPPOSE HIM AT MURDER TRIAL, AND THEIR CHILDREN

NEW YORK, April 17.—Insanity will be the plea of Captain Peter C. Hains, U. S. A., when he appears for trial at Flushing on April 19 for the murder of William E. Annis at the Bayside Yacht Club last summer. An incident which is alleged to have occurred during a battle in Cuba in 1898 will be related as contributory proof that Hains had been subject to emotional insanity for years. At the fight at La Guira, in which Captain Hains, his brother, Major Hains, and his father, General Hains, participated, it is said that Captain Hains boldly ordered his father to the rear and struck at the older officer with his sword when he refused to obey the order. Mrs. Claudia Libby Hains, the Captain's young wife, against whom divorce proceedings are now pending, may be a witness for the State. It is argued that she cannot afford to allow the recital of her alleged misconduct with Annis to go unanswered in view of the fact that she will seek to regain possession of her three children, who are now in the custody of Captain Hains' parents.

CAPTAIN HAINS AS HE APPEARED WHEN ARRAIGNED

HAINS CHILDREN

HAINS CHILDREN

SINKING SHAFTS INTO COAL BEDS.

Interesting Discussion of the Best Methods by An Expert Engineer.

RECTANGULAR FORM FAVORED

European Method Is Different As In That Country Shafts Are Generally Circular or Elliptical in Shape—Concrete Shafts in Connellsville Region.

From the Weekly Courier.

The methods for sinking shafts is a subject of interest to all mining men. Newer fields of coaling coal are largely being reached through shafts, some of which attain to considerable depths in the Lower Connellsville region. The latest shafts there are lined with concrete instead of timber.

The deepest shaft in America, No. 3 Tunnock at Tamarack, Mich., is 5,250 feet deep and is used in mining copper. No. 5 shaft at Tamarack, is 5,180 feet deep. Red Jacicot shaft at Calumet, Mich., is 4,940 feet deep.

These shafts are remarkable not only because they penetrate the earth for almost a mile, but also because of the remarkably powerful hoisting engines used—compound engines which hoist a total of 17 tons at the rate of 6,000 feet per minute. All of these shafts are vertical, says Francis Donaldson, Chief Engineer for the Dravo Contracting Company, in the course of an article published by "Mines and Minerals."

Shaft-sinking and tunnel operations in ancient times were confined to solid earth and rock. The Roman engineers drove rock tunnels that would stand long today; they originated the method of disintegrating rock by fire.

Nowadays shafts along the line of steam or open exhausts have been extensively used. The sizes and shapes of shafts are governed by the nature of the material to be hoisted through them, by the character of the ground to be penetrated, and also largely by local usage.

Since mine, bank and ship shafts are approximately rectangular in plan, a rectangle is the most economical shape for a shaft shaft, giving the maximum usable area with the minimum excavation; this advantage, however, does not apply to an air shaft.

The rectangular shape is also adapted to timbering. The cheapest form of lining, and is on this account, the standard in America. In Europe, on the other hand, all shafts are circular or elliptical and are lined with brick or concrete masonry. This type has the disadvantage of high first cost, as a masonry lining is proof against decay and fire and explosions.

In wet shafts also, a circular shaft may be lined with iron tubing and thus kept entirely dry.

In large mines two openings are always advisable to secure satisfactory ventilation; in coal mines where explosive gases form, special shafts are necessary, and in most States are required by law.

The hoist shafts are the most common.

SULTAN OF TURKEY AND LEADERS OF EMPIRE'S OPPPOSING PARTIES

The revolt in Turkey against the constitution and the progressive or younger element of the empire is required all over Europe as a shriveling move on the part of the Sultan and reactionary leaders to restore the old autocratic regime in its entirety. The Sultan recognized the constitution only when he was forced to do so, and when the troops made a demonstration before the parliament building he promptly issued an edict pardoning them. Tawfiq Pasha was made Prime Minister and Edhem Pasha Minister of War. Both are right hand men of the Sultan. Riza Pasha, head and front of the progressive party, is in hiding.

TURKISH TERRORS ON THE INCREASE.

Bloody Massacre in Which Missionaries are Slain Reported.

LEISHMAN HAS NO NEWS

Americans Are Reported Killed in the Fighting But This is Not Confirmed. Bombardment of Constantinople, Also Rumored.

Berlin, April 17.—The Belgrade correspondent of the London Advertiser says that the Turkish minister there is reported to have received a dispatch saying that "the Pera and Galata quarters of Constantinople had been bombarded and 2,000 persons killed."

A special dispatch from Belgrade says that after a monster meeting there, the Young Turks telegraphed the Sultan, saying "We are marching on Constantinople in order to save the constitution you are trying to abolish."

A dispatch received at Marsina from Adams says that city has been shamed since last Wednesday evening and that horrible massacres are being carried out on the streets. This information was converted to Berlin in a private cablegram from Marsina.

Later advices say that the massacre is spreading to the smaller cities. Orders are said to have commenced at Tarsus, the little town noted as the birthplace of the Apostle Paul, and many houses there were reported to have been burned. The number of victims at Tarsus, according to dispatches, was unknown.

WIFE GOES TO WORKHOUSE.

Pleading Guilty to Torturing Adopted Daughter.

Toledo, O., April 17.—Under sentence of six months' imprisonment and a fine of $150 Mrs. Joseph Sager, wife of a physician of Celina, O., has become an inmate of the Toledo workhouse.

Mrs. Sager pleaded guilty to the charge of torturing her ten-year-old adopted daughter. A few days ago the child's teacher found many burns on the little girl's back and legs. An investigation was made and a result Mrs. Sager was arrested. The child told that her foster mother had abused her and recently used a redhot poker on her as a means of punishment. Unless Mrs. Sager's fine is paid she will be compelled to remain in the workhouse nearly a year.

BOYS SLAY THEIR FATHER.

Recent Brutal Treatment by Shooting Him to Death.

Roanoke, Va., April 17.—John Craig was shot to death in his home at Roanoke Fork, and his two sons, Patrick and Arthur, ages nine and twelve respectively, were arrested, charged with the killing and placed in jail.

It is said the father had been brutally treating the boys, and while he was asleep they planned to take his life. One of the boys, it is alleged, pointed a revolver at the father and pulled the trigger, but the cartridge was not exploded. The other boy, it is charged, then shot the parent through the head, killing him almost instantly.

Fifty Spring Locomos Ordered. Boston, April 17.—Orders for fifty new locomotives for the Boston and Maine railroad at a cost of half a million dollars have been placed.

Meantime the great powers appear

DOLLY OF THE CIRCUS

BY MARGARET MAYO

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY DODD, MEAD AND COMPANY

CHAPTER XII.

ONLY days followed Polly's desertion of the parsonage. Mandy went about her duties very quietly, feeling that the little comments which once amused the pastor had now become his interruption to thoughts in which she had no part. He would sit for hours with his head in his hands, taking no notice of what passed before him. She tried to think of new dishes to tempt his appetite and shook her head sadly as she bore the unacted food back to the kitchen.

She sometimes found a portfolio of drawings lying open upon his study-table. She remembered the zeal with which he had planned to remodel the church at his parsonage when he first came to them, how his enthusiasm had gradually died for lack of encouragement and how he had at last put his tools in a cupboard where they grew dusty and out of sight. She grieved at this depreciation now, but something in the set, faraway look made her afraid to inquire. Thus she went on from day to day, growing more impatient with Hasty and more silent with the pastor.

Mandy needed humor and companionhip to fill the wheels of her humdrum life. There was no more laughter in the house, and she began to droop.

Polly had been away from the parsonage a month when the confluence of the village was again upset by the arrival of the "Great American Circus."

There were many callers at the parsonage that day, for speculation was now at fever heat about the pastor. "Will he try to see her?" "Has he forgotten her?" and "What did he ever find in her?" were a few of the many questions that the women were asking each other. Now that the cause of their envy was removed they would gladly have reinstated the pastor as their hero, for, like all truly feminine souls, they could not bear to see a man unhappy without wishing to comfort him, nor unhappy unless they were the direct cause of his state. "How dare any man be happy without me?" had been the cry of each woman since Eve was created to mate with Adam.

Polly had held himself more and more aloof from the day of Polly's disappearance. He expressed no opinion about the demons of their recent disapproval of him. He avoided meeting them other than duty required, and Hasty felt so uncomfortable and tongue tied in his presence that he, too, was glad to make their talks as few as possible.

Nothing was said about the pastor's plans for the future or about his continued connection with the church, and the inquisitive sisterhood was on the point of exploding from an overactive accumulation of unanswered questions.

He deflected his serious concatenations, called upon his poor, listened to the sorrows, real and fancied, of his parishioners and shut himself up with his books or walked alone on the hill behind the church.

He had been absent all day when Mandy looked out on the circus lot for the dozenth time and saw that the afternoon performance was closing. It had driven her to desperation to learn that Miss Polly was not in the parade that morning and to know that the pastor had made no effort to find out about her. For weeks both she and Hasty had hoped that the return of the circus might bring Polly back to them, but now it was nearly night and there had been no word from her. Why didn't she come running in to see them, as Mandy had felt so sure she would? Why had the pastor stayed away on the hills all day?

Unanswered questions were always an abomination to Mandy, so usually she drew a quarter from the knotted glutinous rug that held her small wad of savings and told Hasty to "go long to de show an' find out 'bout Miss Polly."

She was anxiously waiting for him when Deacon Strong knocked at the door for the second time that afternoon.

"Is Mr. Douglas back yet?" he asked. "No, sir, he ain't," said Mandy very shortly. She told Strong and Elverson had been "a-tryin' to spy on de people all day," and she resented their visits more than she usually did.

"What time are you expectin' him?" "I don't never spec' Massa Dougles'll see him."

Strong grunted unfeelingly and went down the steps. She saw from the window that he met Elverson in front of the church.

"Don't am a-meanin' trouble," she mumbled.

The band had stopped playing; the last of the audience had straggled down the street. She opened the door and stood on the porch; the house seemed to suffocate her. What was keeping Hasty?

He came at last, but Mandy could tell from his gait that he brought unwise news.

"Ain't she dar?" "She's a-travelin' wild 'em, Mandy, but she didn't done ride."

"See here, Hasty Jones, is dat errible sick?"

"I don't rightly know," said Hasty. "A great big man, what wore clothes like a gemmen, come out wild 'em in his hand an' says as how he's 'blied to 'nounce anudder gal to Miss Polly's place. An' den he says as how erudder gal was jes' as good, an' den everybody look disappointed like, an' den out comes de nudder gal in a long suit de white; an' I ain't bound no more 'bout Miss Polly."

"She's sick, dat's what I says," Mandy declared excitedly, "an' somebody's got to do somethin'!"

"I don't all knowed," drawled Hasty, fearing that Mandy was regretting her twenty-five cent investment.

"Go 'long, an' fix up dat 'kitchen fire,'" was Mandy's impatient reply. "I got to keep dem 'tites warm for Massa John."

It was uncertainty that gnawed at him so. Was she ill? Could she need him? Was she sorry for having left him? Would he be glad if he went for her? and brought her back with him? He recited the hysterical note in her behavior the day she went away—how she had plied him with a few moments before Jim came, never to be separated from him. Had she really cared for Jim, and for the old life? Why had she never written? Was she afraid? What had she written? What's she had done? What could it mean? He threw his hands about his head with a gesture of despair. A moment later he passed out into the night.

She wished to be alone, so that she could think of some way to get hold of Polly. "Dat baby faced moppin' glory done got Mandy all wobbly 'bout de heart," she clutched to herself as she crossed to the window for a sight of the pastor.

It was nearly dark when she saw him coming slowly down the path from the hill. She lighted the study

every day or night that she did, and she was roused from the room, ready to and by Hasty.

The band was playing loudly. The din of the night performance was increasing. Douglas' nerves were strained to the point of breaking. He would not let himself go near the window. He stood by the side of the table, his fist clenched, and tried to beat back the impulse that was putting him toward the door. Again and again set his teeth.

It was uncertainty that gnawed at him so. Was she ill? Could she need him? Was she sorry for having left him? Would he be glad if he went for her? and brought her back with him? He recited the hysterical note in her behavior the day she went away—how she had plied him with a few moments before Jim came, never to be separated from him. Had she really cared for Jim, and for the old life? Why had she never written? Was she afraid? What had she written? What's she had done? What could it mean? He threw his hands about his head with a gesture of despair. A moment later he passed out into the night.

She was tuckered out, so that she could think of some way to get hold of Polly. "Dat baby faced moppin' glory done got Mandy all wobbly 'bout de heart," she clutched to herself as she crossed to the window for a sight of the pastor.

It was nearly dark when she saw him coming slowly down the path from the hill. She lighted the study

every day or night that she did, and she was roused from the room, ready to and by Hasty.

The band was playing loudly. The din of the night performance was increasing. Douglas' nerves were strained to the point of breaking. He would not let himself go near the window. He stood by the side of the table, his fist clenched, and tried to beat back the impulse that was putting him toward the door. Again and again set his teeth.

It was uncertainty that gnawed at him so. Was she ill? Could she need him? Was she sorry for having left him? Would he be glad if he went for her? and brought her back with him? He recited the hysterical note in her behavior the day she went away—how she had plied him with a few moments before Jim came, never to be separated from him. Had she really cared for Jim, and for the old life? Why had she never written? Was she afraid? What had she written? What's she had done? What could it mean? He threw his hands about his head with a gesture of despair. A moment later he passed out into the night.

She was tuckered out, so that she could think of some way to get hold of Polly. "Dat baby faced moppin' glory done got Mandy all wobbly 'bout de heart," she clutched to herself as she crossed to the window for a sight of the pastor.

It was nearly dark when she saw him coming slowly down the path from the hill. She lighted the study

every day or night that she did, and she was roused from the room, ready to and by Hasty.

The band was playing loudly. The din of the night performance was increasing. Douglas' nerves were strained to the point of breaking. He would not let himself go near the window. He stood by the side of the table, his fist clenched, and tried to beat back the impulse that was putting him toward the door. Again and again set his teeth.

It was uncertainty that gnawed at him so. Was she ill? Could she need him? Was she sorry for having left him? Would he be glad if he went for her? and brought her back with him? He recited the hysterical note in her behavior the day she went away—how she had plied him with a few moments before Jim came, never to be separated from him. Had she really cared for Jim, and for the old life? Why had she never written? Was she afraid? What had she written? What's she had done? What could it mean? He threw his hands about his head with a gesture of despair. A moment later he passed out into the night.

She was tuckered out, so that she could think of some way to get hold of Polly. "Dat baby faced moppin' glory done got Mandy all wobbly 'bout de heart," she clutched to herself as she crossed to the window for a sight of the pastor.

It was nearly dark when she saw him coming slowly down the path from the hill. She lighted the study

every day or night that she did, and she was roused from the room, ready to and by Hasty.

The band was playing loudly. The din of the night performance was increasing. Douglas' nerves were strained to the point of breaking. He would not let himself go near the window. He stood by the side of the table, his fist clenched, and tried to beat back the impulse that was putting him toward the door. Again and again set his teeth.

It was uncertainty that gnawed at him so. Was she ill? Could she need him? Was she sorry for having left him? Would he be glad if he went for her? and brought her back with him? He recited the hysterical note in her behavior the day she went away—how she had plied him with a few moments before Jim came, never to be separated from him. Had she really cared for Jim, and for the old life? Why had she never written? Was she afraid? What had she written? What's she had done? What could it mean? He threw his hands about his head with a gesture of despair. A moment later he passed out into the night.

She was tuckered out, so that she could think of some way to get hold of Polly. "Dat baby faced moppin' glory done got Mandy all wobbly 'bout de heart," she clutched to herself as she crossed to the window for a sight of the pastor.

It was nearly dark when she saw him coming slowly down the path from the hill. She lighted the study

every day or night that she did, and she was roused from the room, ready to and by Hasty.

The band was playing loudly. The din of the night performance was increasing. Douglas' nerves were strained to the point of breaking. He would not let himself go near the window. He stood by the side of the table, his fist clenched, and tried to beat back the impulse that was putting him toward the door. Again and again set his teeth.

It was uncertainty that gnawed at him so. Was she ill? Could she need him? Was she sorry for having left him? Would he be glad if he went for her? and brought her back with him? He recited the hysterical note in her behavior the day she went away—how she had plied him with a few moments before Jim came, never to be separated from him. Had she really cared for Jim, and for the old life? Why had she never written? Was she afraid? What had she written? What's she had done? What could it mean? He threw his hands about his head with a gesture of despair. A moment later he passed out into the night.

She was tuckered out, so that she could think of some way to get hold of Polly. "Dat baby faced moppin' glory done got Mandy all wobbly 'bout de heart," she clutched to herself as she crossed to the window for a sight of the pastor.

It was nearly dark when she saw him coming slowly down the path from the hill. She lighted the study

every day or night that she did, and she was roused from the room, ready to and by Hasty.

The band was playing loudly. The din of the night performance was increasing. Douglas' nerves were strained to the point of breaking. He would not let himself go near the window. He stood by the side of the table, his fist clenched, and tried to beat back the impulse that was putting him toward the door. Again and again set his teeth.

It was uncertainty that gnawed at him so. Was she ill? Could she need him? Was she sorry for having left him? Would he be glad if he went for her? and brought her back with him? He recited the hysterical note in her behavior the day she went away—how she had plied him with a few moments before Jim came, never to be separated from him. Had she really cared for Jim, and for the old life? Why had she never written? Was she afraid? What had she written? What's she had done? What could it mean? He threw his hands about his head with a gesture of despair. A moment later he passed out into the night.

She was tuckered out, so that she could think of some way to get hold of Polly. "Dat baby faced moppin' glory done got Mandy all wobbly 'bout de heart," she clutched to herself as she crossed to the window for a sight of the pastor.

It was nearly dark when she saw him coming slowly down the path from the hill. She lighted the study

every day or night that she did, and she was roused from the room, ready to and by Hasty.

The band was playing loudly. The din of the night performance was increasing. Douglas' nerves were strained to the point of breaking. He would not let himself go near the window. He stood by the side of the table, his fist clenched, and tried to beat back the impulse that was putting him toward the door. Again and again set his teeth.

It was uncertainty that gnawed at him so. Was she ill? Could she need him? Was she sorry for having left him? Would he be glad if he went for her? and brought her back with him? He recited the hysterical note in her behavior the day she went away—how she had plied him with a few moments before Jim came, never to be separated from him. Had she really cared for Jim, and for the old life? Why had she never written? Was she afraid? What had she written? What's she had done? What could it mean? He threw his hands about his head with a gesture of despair. A moment later he passed out into the night.

She was tuckered out, so that she could think of some way to get hold of Polly. "Dat baby faced moppin' glory done got Mandy all wobbly 'bout de heart," she clutched to herself as she crossed to the window for a sight of the pastor.

It was nearly dark when she saw him coming slowly down the path from the hill. She lighted the study

every day or night that she did, and she was roused from the room, ready to and by Hasty.

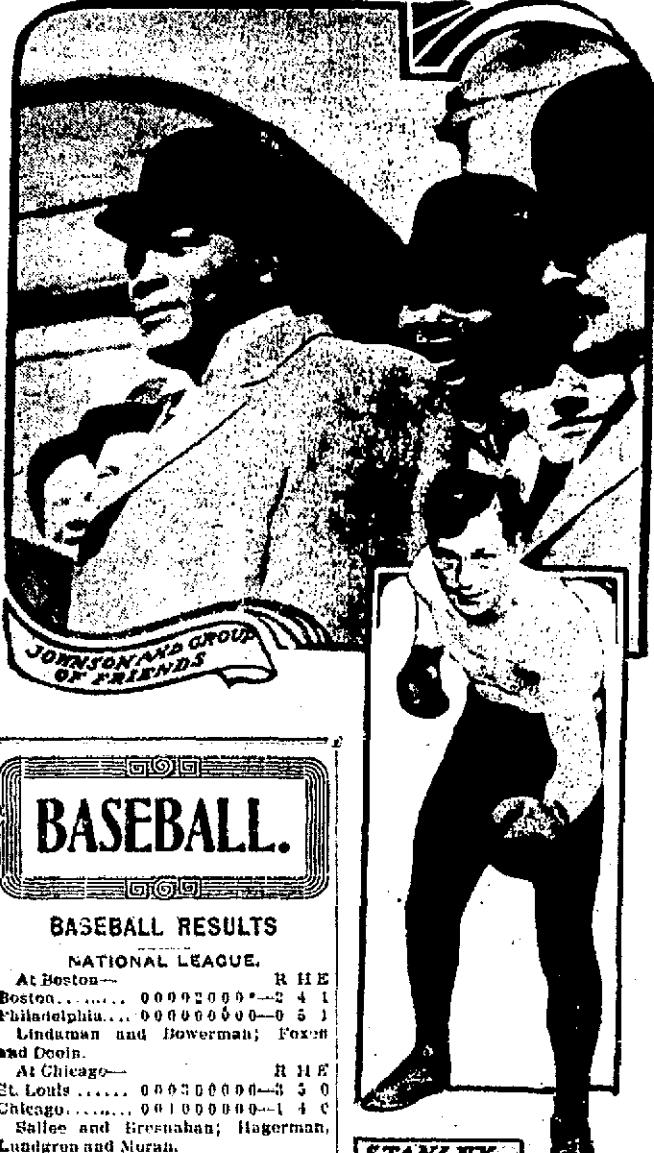

The band was playing loudly. The din of the night performance was increasing. Douglas' nerves were strained to the point of breaking. He would not let himself go near the window. He stood by the side of the table, his fist clenched, and tried to beat back the impulse that was putting him toward the door. Again and again set his teeth.

It was uncertainty that gnawed at him so. Was she ill?

JOHNSON AND KETCHEL, WHO ARE

MATCHED FOR TWENTY ROUND FIGHT

After Stanley Ketchel, the middleweight champion, had seen the moving pictures of the Johnson-Burns fight, he was more eager for a match with the big negro than before and lost no time in signing a contract to meet Johnson at the Colma club, San Francisco, on October 12. So anxious was the hardhitting "Mountain Kid" for a try at Burns' conqueror that he was willing to concede the twenty round clause, which Johnson insisted upon, rather than let the chance escape. Johnson and Ketchel are to deposit $5,000 each as a forfeit and are to split 50 per cent. of the gate receipts on the basis of 65 per cent. to the winner and 35 to the loser. Ketchel says he will enter the ring at 180 pounds.

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL RESULTS

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	R	H	E
At Boston—
Boston.....	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	2 4 1
Philadelphia.....	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0 5 1
Linderman and Bowerman; Foxon and Dooin.
At Chicago—	R	H	E
St. Louis.....	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	3 5 0
Chicago.....	0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0	1 4 0
Sallee and Greenahan; Hagerman, Lundgren and Moran.
At Cincinnati—	R	H	E
Cincinnati.....	1 1 0 0 2 0 0 0	4 4 2
Pittsburg.....	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	3 7 1
Dubuc, Campbell and McLean; Powell, Brandon and Gibson.
At New York—	R	H	E
New York.....	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 4	3 7 1
Brooklyn.....	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0 5 1
Raymond, Cranfill and Schell; Rucker, Bell and Bergen.
Standing of the Clubs.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Boston.....	2	1	1.000
Chicago.....	2	1	.500
Cincinnati.....	2	1	.667
New York.....	1	1	.500
Brooklyn.....	1	1	.500
Pittsburg.....	1	2	.333
St. Louis.....	1	2	.333
Philadelphia.....	0	2	.000

Games Today.

Pittsburg at Cincinnati.

St. Louis at Chicago.

Brooklyn at Boston.

Philadelphia at New York.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	R	H	E
At Washington—
Washington.....	3 0 0 0 0 0 0	3 9 1
Boston.....	0 1 0 0 0 1 0 0	2 8 6
Burns and Street; Morgan and Cargan.
At Detroit—	R	H	E
Detroit.....	3 0 2 0 4 1 0 0	19 18 1
Chicago.....	1 0 0 0 1 9 0 0	2 7 4
Jones, Lafitte and Beckendorf and Schmidt; Piene, Suter and Owens.
At St. Louis—	R	H	E
St. Louis.....	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1	6 12 0
Cleveland.....	3 0 2 0 0 0 0 0	5 7 2
Dineen, Graham and Stephens; Dorgan, Liebhard and Land.

Standing of the Clubs.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Boston.....	3	1	1.000
New York.....	3	1	.750
Cleveland.....	2	1	.667
Washington.....	2	2	.333
Boston.....	1	2	.333
Philadelphia.....	1	2	.333
St. Louis.....	1	2	.333
Cleveland.....	0	2	.000

Games Today.

Chicago at St. Louis.

Cleveland at Detroit.

Boston at Washington.

New York at Philadelphia.

HARVARD-COLUMBIA RACE

Contest the Only One at Home For Harvard Garamon This Year.

Cambridge, Mass., April 17.—All Harvard is on the Charles today to see the varsity race between the crimson crew and the crewmen of Columbia university. The race with Cornell is to be rowed at Ithaca, and the Thames, so today's race affords the university its only chance to see the crew in action in a race.

HENRI ST. YVES.

The Gaul and the Gaul will get together in an fifteen-mile contest on the Clifton stadium bicycle track at Clifton, N. J.

White's ten-mile victory over Swanson, the Swede champion, in Madison Square Garden has relegated him to some of the prestige he lost when Mr. Malone beat him recently. St. Yves since then has beaten Malone in a race at Providence, R. I. He is matched to race Shrub, the Englishman, fifteen miles at the American league park on Saturday of next week.

Shrub declared before the Marathon Derby that he was through with racing at the Marathon distance.

MRS. CASTRO ANNOYED

Gloves Venezuela Officials Tongue Lashing at La Guaya.

Carrasco, Venezuela, April 17.—Mme. Castro, wife of the former president of the republic, is reported as having shown much annoyance when the Venezuelan authorities refused to let her disembark at La Guaya from the steamer Guadalupe. From the deck of the vessel she cried out to the government officials on the dock:

"You had better make hay while the sun shines."

No Betting on Ball Games.

New York, April 17.—In an effort to prevent betting on baseball games forty detectives have been assigned to duty in the grand stands at the Polo grounds.

Have you tried our classified ads? Only one cent a word.

PEERLESS WINS OUT.

In The Game With Fearless They Are Victors.

SCOTTSDALE, April 17.—It took an extra frame to decide the winner in last night's duck pin game between Peerless and Fearless, two local fives. Peerless won first, Peerless second, and the last game resulting in a tie, an extra frame was rolled by each team, Peerless rolling 67 and Fearless 54.

All three games were very exciting, all being close the last frame of each game deciding the winner. Flesher, the "dark horse" from Cumberland, was substituted for East in the last game and rolled high score of 103, while O'Brien of Peerless had high average of 103 1/2. Kenney and J. East rolled nice scores for Peerless, as did Jackson and Leitzell of Fearless. Slowball Kelley was declared champion of the alleys after beating his nearest rival Clark Lewis in two strong games by 17 pins.

Peerless.

1st	2nd	3rd	Total
115	88	79	282
Kenney	92	103	250
Kelley	87	99	186
O'Brien	100	88	188
J. East	90	99	189

Totals

Peerless	Fearless
480	445
1st	2nd	3rd	Total
115	88	79	282
Jackson	96	94	190
Leitzell	90	87	177
Lewis	78	85	163
Flesher	—	103	103

Totals

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Goldstein of Mt. Pleasant have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ida Goldstein to Mr. Rufus H. Michael of Uniontown. The engagement will terminate in a fall wedding. Mr. Michael was up until recently employed by Mace & Company and has many friends in Connellsville.

Read our advertisements carefully.

TEN CENTS

10c

TEN CENTS

SOISSON THEATRE

ONE ENTIRE WEEK Commencing Monday, April 19

Best Vaudeville and Moving Pictures in the City, Direct from the Famous Hard's Circuit.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

The World's Greatest Strong Man

MAXIMUS

The Russian Hercules Whose Strength Exceeds That of Any Historic or Legendary Giant.

Reese Brothers

Comedians, Slagers, Dancers, Acrobats

Francis Wood

Expert Hoop Manipulator

Morris and Daly

Irish Comedy Sketch Team

Lillian Murtha

Eccentric Comedienne

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Introducing Carnegie's

Living Statues and Pictures

Posed by men and women models from the studios of Paris. Reproductions of life of world's masterpiece art pieces of art.

Joseph Goodman

Artistic Ventriloquist

Elsie Jayne

Juvenile Buck and Wing Dancer

Bernard and Harris

Polite Singers and Dancers

VERY LATEST AND BEST MOVING PICTURES.

DON'T MISS THESE GREAT SHOWS

A Gala Week of High Class Vaudeville

REMEMBER THE OPENING PERFORMANCE IS MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Doors open at 2 and 7 P. M., commences at 2:30 and 7:30 P. M. Evening performances are continuous.

Stay As Long as You Like.

Come When You Please.

Prices, Matinee, 10c; Children, 5c;

Night, 15c; Gallery, 5c.

FIVE CENTS

5c

FIVE CENTS

WRIGHT-METZLER Co.

IT will soon be time to leave off the overcoat. That suit that has served you so well through the long winter is hardly fit for close daylight inspection. There'll have to be a new suit purchased before you can lay aside the overcoat with any degree of satisfaction and if a fellow wears an overcoat much longer they'll say "it's just to cover his old suit." So it's up to a lot of us to skirmish around and buy some new Spring Togs.

THERE isn't much time left for looking, but you don't require so very much time for your suit is already for you hers. Perfect in style, faultless in tailoring, and every fabric authentic in coloring, weave and design. We've prepared handsomely in anticipation of your "hurry needs" when the warm Spring sunshine demands the "laying away" of the overcoat. There's a "shine" on the old suit that won't rub off. It reflects the Spring sunshine all too noticeably. It will have to go with the overcoat and the better dressed class of men are going to choose its successor here. Correct style is more important in the Spring and Summer months than at any other season. It is open to closest